

BestHorsePractices

Balancing Sense & Science

SUMMIT

October 8-10, 2017

Advancing ideas to improve the horse-human connection

Bringing together the best of equine research and sound horsemanship

The BestHorsePractices Summit, Inc., is a Colorado non-profit corporation with 501(c)(3) status, offering academic and arena presentations.

Presenters include:

Martin Black, Warwick Schiller and Jim Thomas, academics Dr. Sheryl King and Dr. Steve Peters, and best-selling author Wendy Williams. More to be named soon.

Benefits:

Recreational riders, working cowboys, horse professionals, equine students, and barn managers will leave with new insights and greater skills for work with their horses.

The BHP Summit will:

Bring together horse experts, educators, and researchers for presentations on best practices related to nutrition, handling, management, and riding

Showcase presenters in a collaborative, non-competitive setting

Feature trade show with goods and services that pass a 'best practices' standard

BestHorsePractices

Balancing Sense & Science

SUMMIT

Sponsorship Benefits

Become a charter sponsor of this innovative conference. The BHPS will draw an international audience of avid horsemen and women. Sponsors will enjoy association with some of the most highly respected figures in the horse world.

High-quality video production means sponsors will reach thousands through lasting on-line subscriptions.

Bi-weekly press releases distributed via newsletters and social media will reach hundreds of thousands of engaged readers.

Opportunities starting at $1,000.

Support the Movement

The BestHorsePractices Summit, Inc. is a Colorado nonprofit corporation with 501(c)(3) status. Your generous donation is tax deductible. Volunteers welcome.

See BestHorsePractices.com for more information.

To register, read more, and review lodging options
visit BestHorsePractices.com